PSALM 119

22 total paragraphs: 22 Hebrew Characters

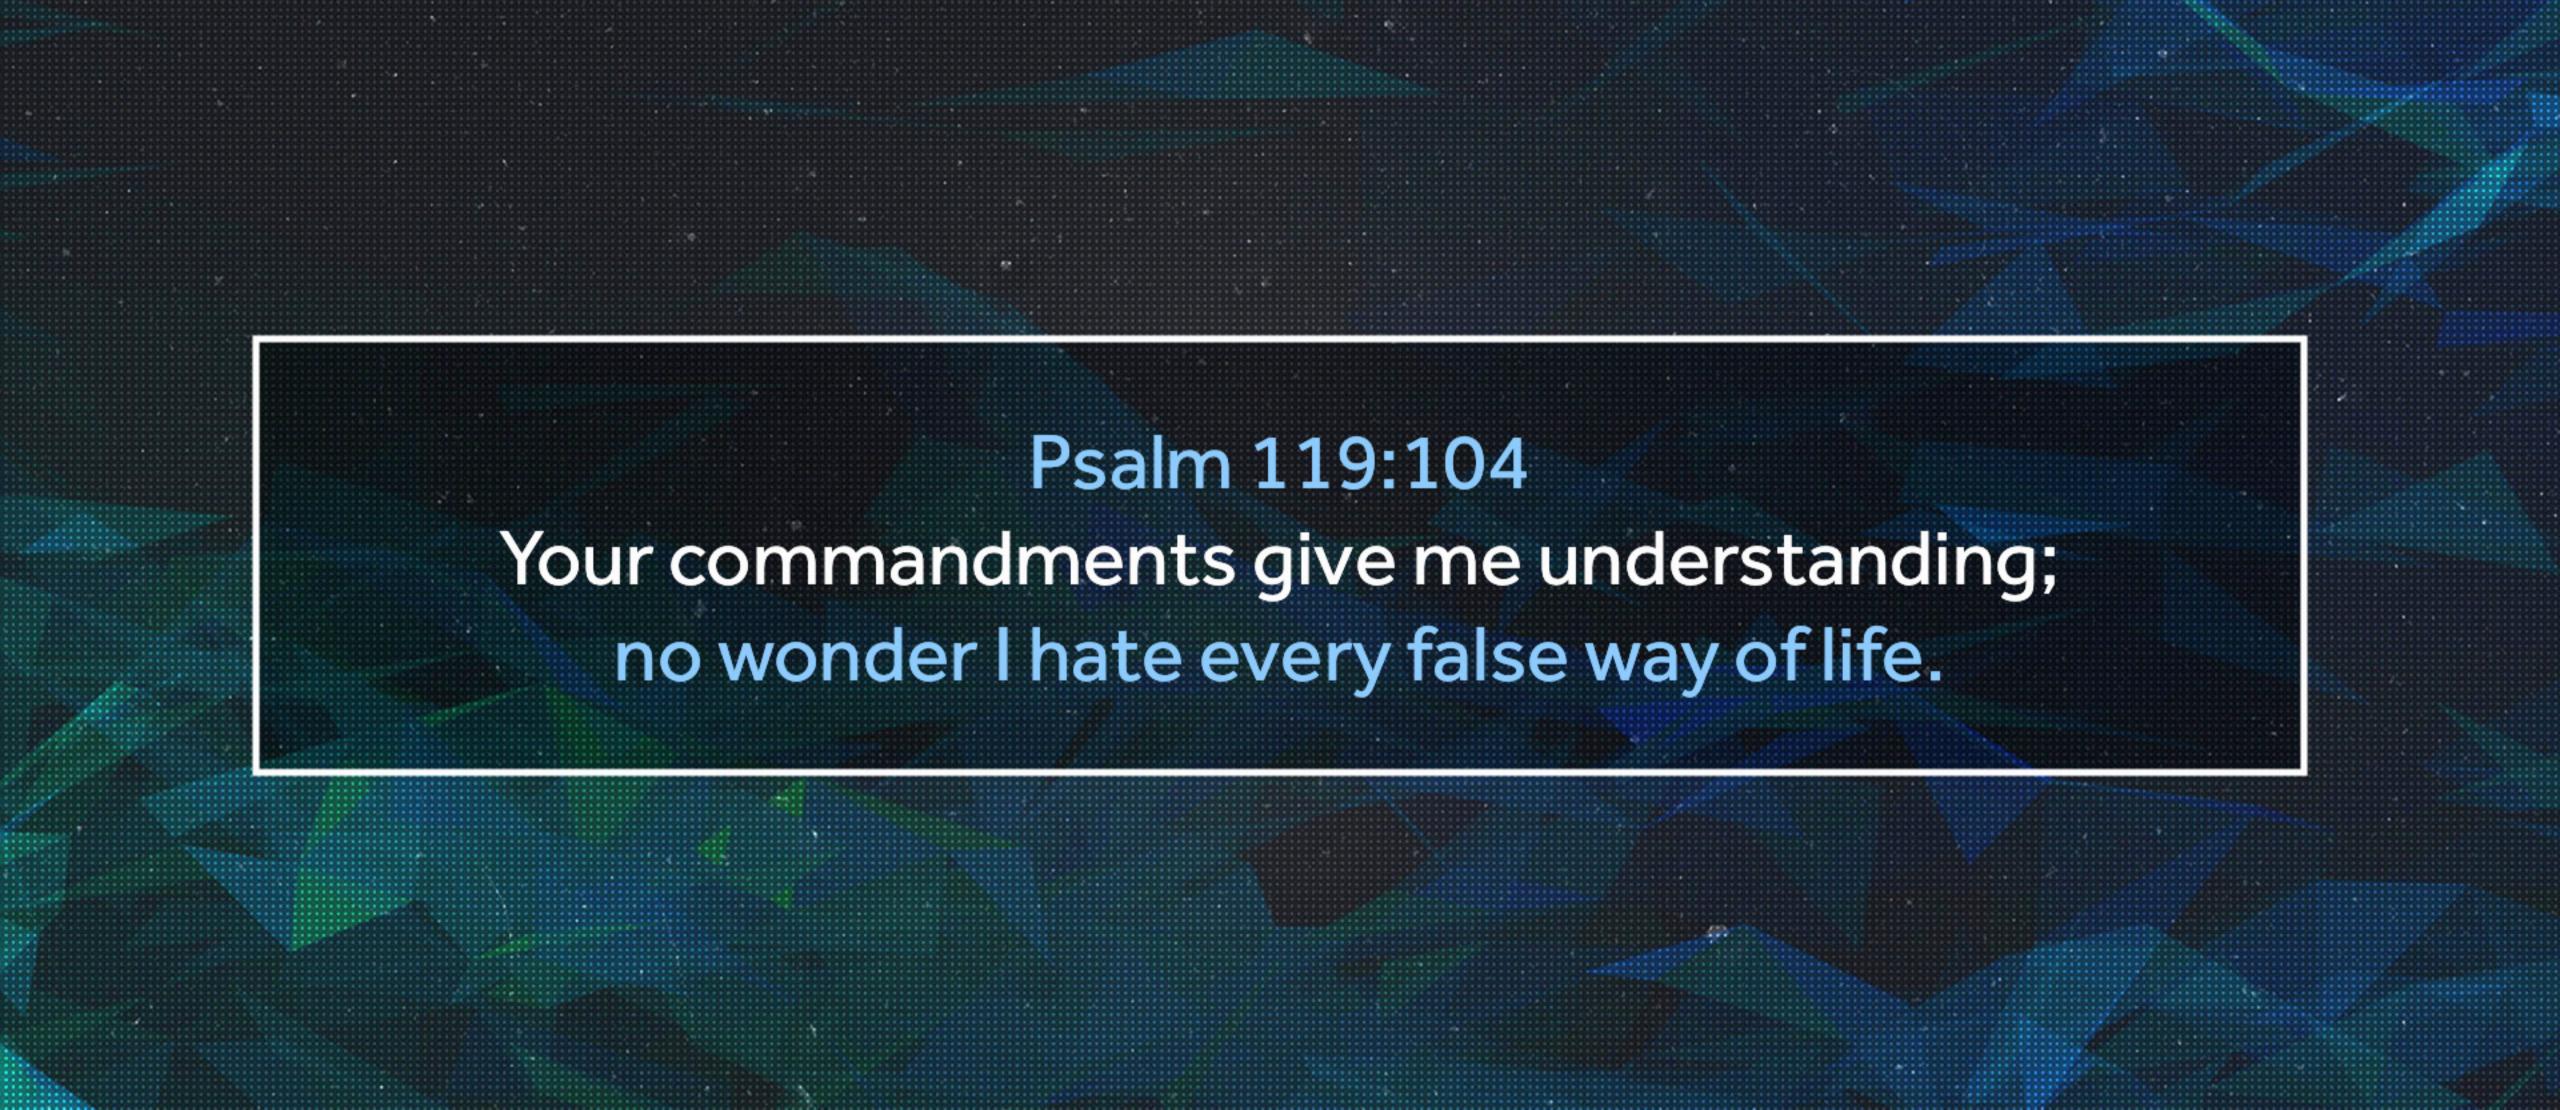

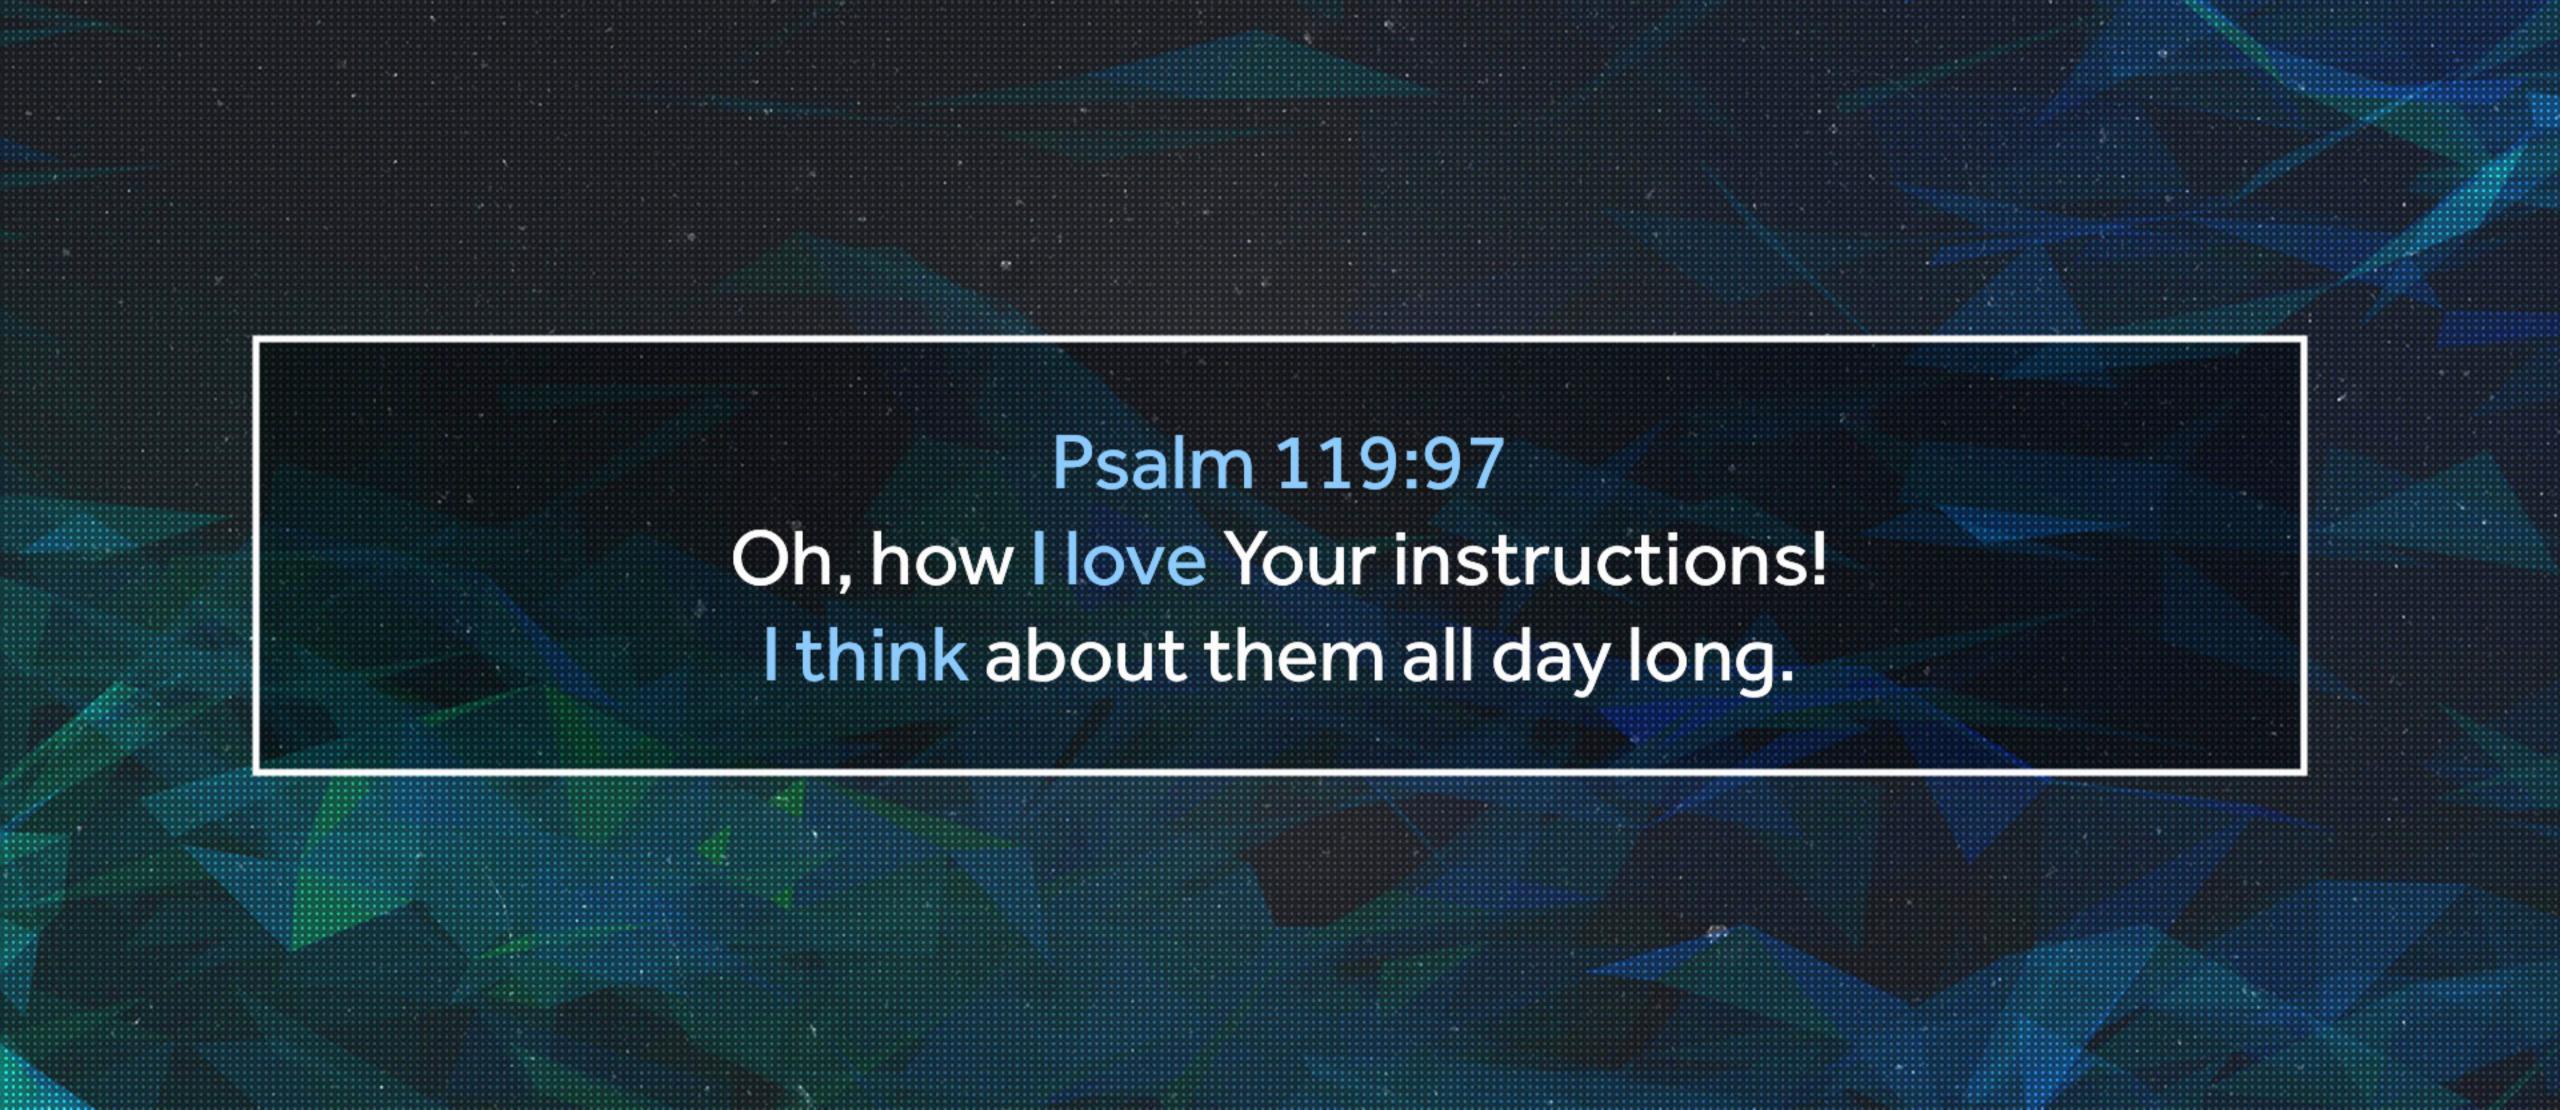

Psalm 119:98-99 Your commands make me wiser than my enemies, for they are my constant guide. Yes, I have more insight than my teachers, for I am always thinking of Your laws.

Psalm 119:100-101 I am even wiser than my elders, for I have kept Your commandments. I have refused to walk on any evil path, so that I may remain obedient to Your word.

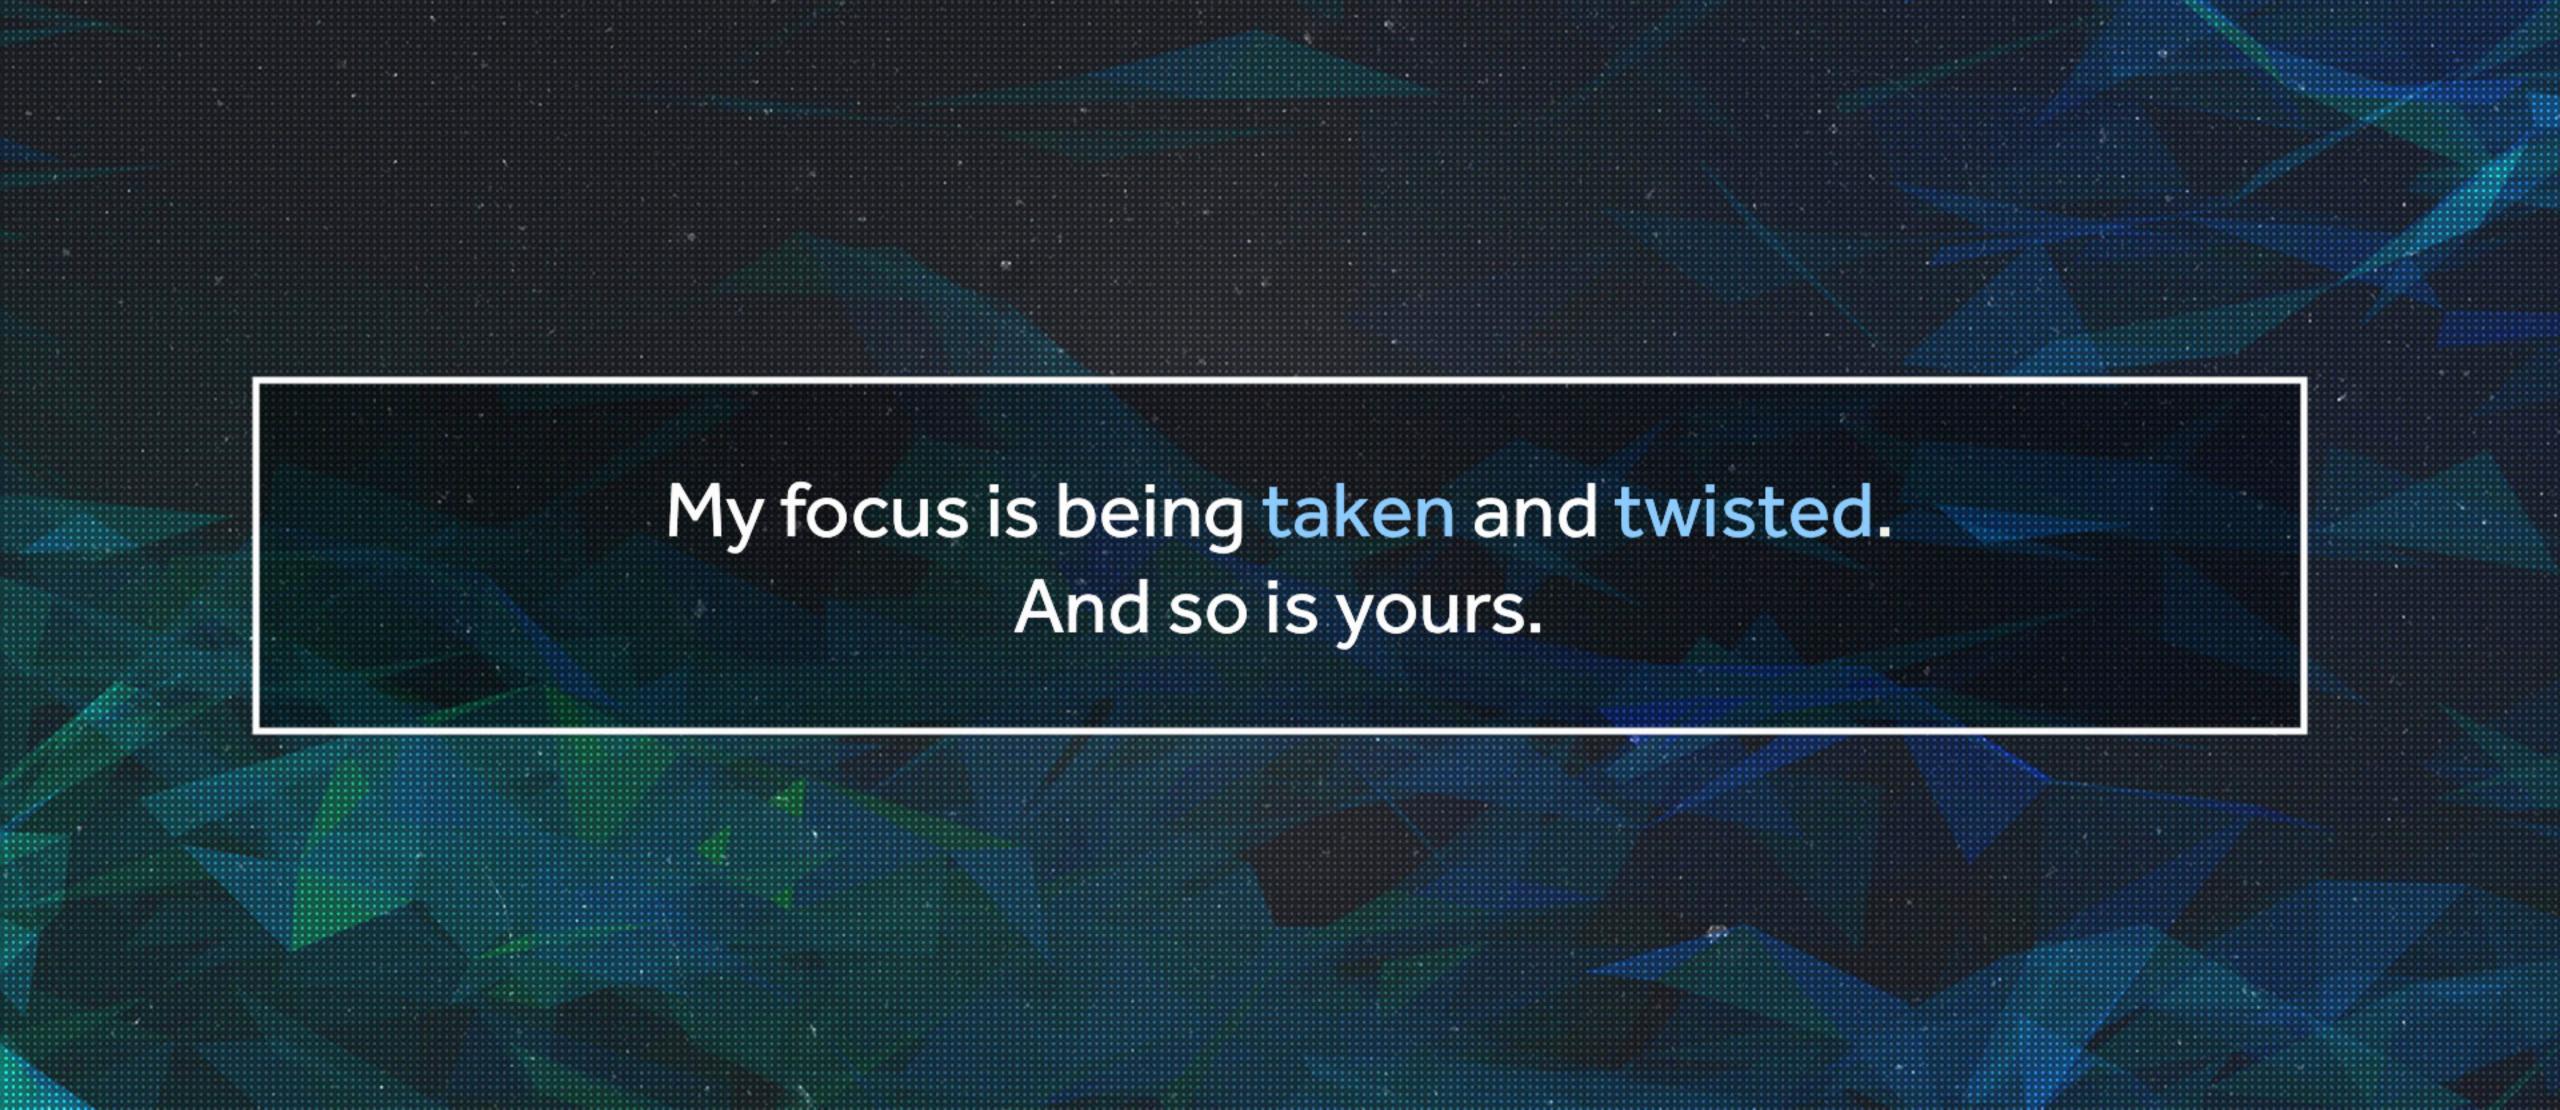

Psalm 119:102-103 I haven't turned away from Your regulations, for You have taught me well. How sweet Your words taste to me; they are sweeter than honey.

The more I focus and think on God's Word, the more I hear and love God's Voice.

Acts 20:9-11

As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below. Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms. "Don't worry," he said, "he's alive!" Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord's Supper, and ate together. Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left.

The important things in life aren't cheap thrills.
They're long, deep, often boring, and sometimes painful.
They demand investment and sacrifice.
