Romans 8:35-39

Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean He no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? (As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.") No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

Romans 8:35-39

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

How do I face COVID-19 faithfully?

Will you choose...

1. Gratitude over Despair or Denial?

Gratitude over Despair or Denial?

- We can be grateful for what we still have.
- We can be grateful for what we once had but took for granted.

Will you choose...

1. Gratitude over Despair or Denial?
2. Neighbor-Love over Self-Preservation?

It takes a radical experience of losing all control to realize just how little control we have.

Disciplines of Disengagement

Utilize unanticipated margin to pray, study, and rest.

Defiant Worship

Worship in defiance of fear, suffering, and uncertainty.

Song of Ascent

No less God within the shadows
No less faithful when the night leads me astray
You're the heaven where my heart is
In the highlands and the heartache all the same

Waymaker

Even when I can't see it, You're working

Even when I can't feel it, You're working

You never stop, You never stop working

You never stop, You never stop working
