

It's both/and, not either/or.

Spiritual Justice - giving sinners what they don't deserve, grace and forgiveness.

Social Justice - giving "the least" what they do deserve, love and dignity.

Luke 4:18-19 (NLT)

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free, and that the time of the Lord’s favor has come.”

God has made our souls for shalom, but sin has marked our souls with selfishness.

Incurvatus in se

"turned or curved inward on oneself"

Philippians 2:12b

Work hard to show the results of your salvation, obeying God with holy awe and wonder.

1 John 4:19 (NLT)

We love each other because He first loved us.

Sheilaism

"I worship that little voice in my heart"

When I serve outside my comfort zone

When I give until it hurts

To those who can offer me nothing in return

Because I trust Jesus' way

And because I cherish God's grace

It changes me more than it changes others.
