About Our Partner:

El Oasis is a university campus ministry that started in Santiago, the capital city of Chile, and is now also in Viña Del Mar, a bustling beach town. The El Oasis team wants their ministry to be “the place to be” for college students throughout the week. They seek to touch the lives of students physically, spiritually, and emotionally. They do this through Bible studies, worship events, counseling, retreats, service projects, discipleship, and leadership development.

Focus of Trip:

A small group of 6 to 8 adults will assist El Oasis in their weekly programing for college students in Viña Del Mar. Activities include “Talk with a Gringo” where students can practice their English in a fun, interactive way, community discussion times, and Bible study. There will also be time to pour into the El Oasis leadership team and encourage them in their ministries, as well as time to learn about the culture and the local areas.
