He is risen!

He is risen, indeed!

He gone!

Yea, He gone!

He is risen!

He is RIZZ-in, yeet!

"He is risen" reminds us what we believe.

-We all will die.

-Because...the wages of sin is death.

-But...Jesus paid the penalty for our sin.

-And...sin and death could not keep Him down.

-So...sin and death will not keep us down either.

He is risen!

And so shall we be!

Let us eat and drink!

For tomorrow we die!

1 CORINTHIANS 15:32

If the dead are not raised,
“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

Let us eat and drink! → Medicate the meaninglessness.

For tomorrow we die! → Make the most of the moment.

Medicate the meaninglessness.

Make the most of the moment.

Medicate the meaninglessness.

Make the most of the moment.

Problems w/Hoping in Human Progress

Problems w/Hoping in Human Progress

1. There is no real future in it.
2. Humans are capable of great evil no matter how advanced we get.

“At the dawn of the third millennium, humanity wakes up to an amazing realization. Most people rarely think about it, but in the last few decades we have managed to rein in famine, plague and war... We don't need to pray to any god or saint to rescue us from them. We know quite well what needs to be done in order to prevent famine, plague, and war—and we usually succeed in doing it.”

-Yuval Harara, Homo Deus

Matthew 28:1-10, 16-20

Early on Sunday morning, as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb. Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint. Then the angel spoke to the women. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

Matthew 28:1-10, 16-20

He isn't here! He is risen from the dead, just as He said would happen. Come, see where His body was lying. And now, go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead, and He is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see Him there. Remember what I have told you.”

The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were very frightened but also filled with great joy, and they rushed to give the disciples the angel's message. And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they ran to Him, grasped His feet, and worshiped Him.

Matthew 28:1-10, 16-20

Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see Me there.”
... Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw Him, they worshiped Him—but some of them doubted! Jesus came and told His disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 28:1-10, 16-20

Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

MATTHEW 28:9

And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them [Χαίρετε].

MATTHEW 28:9

And as they went, Jesus met them and said, “Sup?”

MATTHEW 28:10

“Don’t be afraid.”

MATTHEW 28:10, 18-20

"Go tell My brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see Me there ... Go and make disciples of all the nations!"

MATTHEW 28:20

“I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

“Now at last they were beginning Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on for ever: in which every chapter is better than the one before.”

-C.S. Lewis, The Last Battle
