This is what the Lord says— He who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters, who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

Isaiah 43:16-21 NIV

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:16-21 NIV

The wild animals honor Me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to My people, My chosen, the people I formed for Myself that they may proclaim My praise.

Isaiah 43:16-21 NIV

Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.

Isaiah 43:18 NIV

See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:19 NIV

Sacred Forgetfulness – To release the defining power of our past—good, bad, or indifferent—in order that we might be rooted in the defining power of God.

Resist The Lure of Regret

Regret - sorrow aroused by circumstances beyond one's control or beyond one’s power to repair

Sacred Forgetfulness invites us to remember God's love covers a multitude of sins and mistakes

Let Past Relationships Set Your Standard, Not Your Expectations

Sacred Forgetfulness invites us to remember the lessons and release the pain.

Let Pain Be A Source of Power,
Not A Snare In Your Life

Sacred Forgetfulness invites your pain to remember your God.

Live A Life That
Invites You To Hope

A Life of Hope Believes That
Healing Is Possible

A Life of Hope Pursues Healing
In The Present

A Life of Hope Remembers That Healing Is Coming

“We are products of our past, but we don’t have to be prisoners of it. God’s purpose is not limited by your past.”

Rick Warren
